Joint seminar held by Spire and YBC on India's business landscape in 2017

On 15 June, Spire and Yamada Business Consulting (YBC) jointly held a seminar at The Japanese Association in Singapore to give insights on emerging trends for India's economy. The seminar aimed to raise understanding of market opportunities in light of events such as the roll-out of GST in India and President Donald Trump's victory in the U.S elections.

Yasuyuki (Luke) Kita, General Manager at Yamada Business Consulting Singapore, addressed the session to discuss current business trends in India in light of developments such as Trump's victory in the U.S. election.

Kita-san highlighted the impact on India's economy of the recent Rupee demonetization of high-value currency notes, the introduction of a single Goods and Services Tax (GST) along with the Make In India initiative launched by the government to attract more investors.

He also highlighted the Digital India Program, which aims to transform the nation into a digitally empowered society, nurturing startups and co-innovation.
